SONY

Designed for creators

Engineered for audio professionals, Sony's MDR-MV1 and MDR-M1 headphones deliver precise reference monitoring tailored to your workflow. The MDR-MV1 features an open-back design, optimized for immersive and spatial audio production, offering an expansive soundstage and natural frequency response—ideal for mixing and mastering in environments where critical listening and spatial accuracy are paramount.

In contrast, the MDR-M1's closed-back design ensures superior acoustic isolation and minimal leakage, making it the preferred choice for tracking, recording, and detailed monitoring in studio settings.

Whether you require the transparent, airy imaging of the MDR-MV1 or the focused, controlled environment of the MDR-M1, Sony provides the reference solution to match your professional demands.
